Sodexo's Employee Business Resource Groups (EBRGs) are internal, nonprofit employee groups who, based on shared experiences, join together to provide a positive forum to promote networking, mentoring and professional development among employees. EBRGs support Sodexo's business and diversity objectives. Employees are eligible to join any and all EBRGs as someone who identifies with the affinity group, as an ally, advocate, or someone who is interested in learning more about the EBRG.
